

Information supply and communication by the help of the local language website

The local language website of ELI-Hungary (www.eli.hu) is intensively used to help implementation of the program.

1. The website contains descriptive information on ELI, on ELI-Hungary, and on all the individual programs.
2. All the application possibilities (for training, participation at events, transaction support, etc.) are advertised on the website.
3. Databases of suppliers, banks, products, etc. are available.
4. There is an information exchange service that helps project owners to find partners.
5. Manufacturers, suppliers have the opportunity to advertise themselves.